Wilfrid Laurier University YMCA

Greetings from Mayor Kevin Davis

On behalf of Brantford City Council and the citizens of our community, I am pleased to extend a warm welcome from beautiful Brantford, Ontario.

Situated in southwestern Ontario and overlooking the scenic Grand River, a designated Canadian Heritage river, Brantford is a community with a rich history. It was here that Alexander Graham Bell conceived the idea for the telephone and placed the first long distance telephone call, which revolutionized the way we communicate. We also celebrate our achievement in sport, both as the reigning 'Tournament Capital of Ontario' since 1998 and as the proud hometown of Wayne Gretzky.

For the last four years in a row, Site Selection Magazine has named Brantford as one of the top places in the country for business investment, based on corporate end-user facility investment and related job creation activity analyzed on a cumulative and per-capita basis.

Brantford is conveniently located along a major transportation corridor and is dedicated to promoting economic diversity, quality employment opportunities and efforts to enhance the quality of life of all its residents. Partnerships with Wilfrid Laurier University, Conestoga College and Six Nations Polytechnic have created a vibrant post-secondary presence in Brantford and continue to create more opportunities for our growing workforce.

Our thriving community offers the amenities of a large urban centre while maintaining the charms of small town living, making it the ideal location to raise a family or grow a business. Brantford's City Council is committed to working collectively with all levels of government to pave the way for new business in Brantford.

As Mayor, it is my distinct pleasure to introduce you to our vibrant city. Along with our Economic Development staff, we welcome the opportunity to discuss how Brantford aligns with your investment plans.

Kevin Davis,
Mayor

DIVERSITY

Brantford is a proud, diverse and multicultural community. Brantford is located next to Six Nations of the Grand River, which has the largest population of all First Nations in Canada. 12,000 people live on Six Nations territory, while 80,000 Haudenosaunee live on reserves throughout North America. Canada has two official languages, English and French. Other languages spoken by residents living in Brantford include Punjabi, Polish, Italian, Spanish, Hindi, Vietnamese, Portuguese, Tagalog, Arabic, Hindi, Ukrainian, Greek and Hungarian.

POISED FOR GROWTH

Brantford's population is designated to grow quite aggressively, passing 120,000 residents by 2032 and growing by approximately 60% by 2051. As a designated Urban Growth Centre in the Places to Grow Act, the community is poised for growth, possessing a proactive local government, robust infrastructure network and future development lands dedicated for employment and residential uses through a recent boundary expansion agreement. In this 2017 agreement, the City acquired an additional 6,700 hectares to accommodate future growth.

BUSINESS PARKS AND EXPANSION LANDS

As a single-tier municipality, the City's elected officials encourage development and strive to maintain a timely and equitable development application process for business. Development applications and approvals will be processed in an expeditious manner to meet project timelines and operating milestones.

INCENTIVES AND SUPPORT SERVICES

Brantford offers a variety of government grants, loans, tax credits and support services to provide support and ensure successful and sustainable operations. Both federal and provincial programs offer an array of incentive programs and services that can lower corporate taxes and help save on labour costs, research and development, and expansion activities. In partnership, these organizations represent a comprehensive ecosystem for investment, retention and expansion.

QUALITY OF LIFE

DISCOVER BRANTFORD, THE BIG CITY WITH A SMALL TOWN FEEL

Brantford offers an exciting and enjoyable place to live, work, study and play. Strategically located in the heart of southwestern Ontario along Provincial Highway 403 and situated along the scenic Grand River, Brantford's proximity to the major consumer and industrial markets throughout North America is ideal.

Officially read into legislature on June 4, 1998 as the Tournament Capital of Ontario, Brantford is home to many sports lovers and proud to be the hometown of hockey legend, Wayne Gretzky. In 2023, Brantford welcomed the OHL team, The Brantford Bulldogs, to our roster of sporting excellence.

Outdoor adventure enthusiasts will be kept busy hiking or cycling our 70km of natural trails and can explore the picturesque Grand River, a designated heritage river, by canoe, kayak, stand-up paddle board and more.

Progressive revitalization efforts in the downtown have resulted in an eclectic mix of old and new and the city is home to a growing post-secondary scene with Wilfrid Laurier University, Conestoga College and Six Nations Polytechnic. A variety of unique restaurants, locally-run boutiques, museums and galleries are intermixed with a diverse student population and campus buildings to offer a vibrant atmosphere for patrons and visitors alike looking to experience everything a progressive urban hub has to offer from a quality of life perspective.

KEY SECTORS

Industry in Brantford is built upon the fusion of innovation and manufacturing. Our long history of advancement began with Alexander Graham Bell and the telephone in 1876. Since then, our manufacturers and innovators have contributed to and embraced new technologies and techniques that push the limits of production processes.

Brantford is centrally located in one of the most innovative regions of the world. Due to our unique proximity to leading universities and innovation centres, companies in Brantford are able to tap into research and advanced manufacturing techniques. Brantford companies are committed to product, process and technological innovation.

FOOD AND BEVERAGE MANUFACTURING

Brantford is a leader in food and beverage manufacturing and a strategic centre in Ontario for new and expanding operations. Ontario is one of North America's largest agri-food sectors. Companies locate here because they are close to more than 200 agricultural commodities and a market of 460 million consumers. Ontario is North America's second largest centre for food processing.

Investment in Brantford's food and beverage industry makes good economic sense. This is most evident in our central and strategic location, available and experienced workforce, competitive wages, network of leading food and beverage manufacturers, and proximity to plentiful agricultural commodities.

LABOUR FORCE

Brantford possesses a strong industry-based work ethic. Our labour force is very diverse with employees possessing skills and education from a wide variety of educational areas. The continued expansion and development of the community's three post-secondary institutions ensures that the future labour pool of Brantford will only get stronger as more graduates enter the local workforce. Currently, the employment rate in Brantford is higher than the Ontario average, while the unemployment rate is also lower indicative of Brantford's ready-to-work attitude.

Brantford's centralized location allows it to capitalize on many surrounding communities for talent attraction and retention, translating into 1.08 million workers within 50km (30 miles) and 5.93 million workers within 125km (80 miles). Brantford is ideally situated in the heart of the Greater Golden Horseshoe, one of the most dynamic and fastest growing regions in North America. This area is recognized for its highly-educated workforce and multicultural population, whose social and economic diversity are critical factors for success in a knowledge-based economy.

TRANSPORTATION

Brantford's strategic location provides access to a superior transportation system including highways, internationally connected railways with advanced traffic management systems, worldwide cargo and passenger aviation systems and proximity to extensive inland and international marine shipping facilities.

Brantford is located on Provincial Highway 403, part of the shortest travelled major highway route between the U.S. border points of Detroit (275km/170 miles) and Buffalo (140km/85 miles) southwest of Toronto. The city's superior transportation and connectivity supports a multi-modal approach to moving people and products. Passenger and freight rail services are provided on CN's main Quebec to Windsor rail line.

The Brantford Municipal Airport provides a convenient and cost-effective gateway to local, national and international business markets. Commuters can access GO Bus transit service to connect to Hamilton and the Greater Toronto Area and beyond. Within the City, Brantford Transit provides a cost-effective and environmentally friendly way to get around.

For those looking to hike or bike, Brantford has over 70km (45 miles) of trails in the city and along the Grand River that form part of the 24,000km (15,000 miles) Trans Canada Trail.
